

CASH BACK BY ECONOCOM

Looking to improve your year-end position?

At this time of year, cash reserves are under the most pressure. You may have invested in digital projects to become more agile and ultimately improve your end-users' experience. Although vital to maintain competitive edge, this investment can adversely affect your cash reserves and this is where Econocom, an international as-a-service provider with 49 years' experience, can support.

What's in it for you?

Release the capital 'trapped' in your assets and deploy it back into your business

Get an immediate cash injection to improve your cash position at a critical time of year

Enjoy a simple monthly fee for your digital equipment and full usage of your assets

Strengthen your balance sheet and improve your key financial ratios

Invest your cash back in core activities

Align the cost of your digital investment with the benefits it brings

Gain a competitive advantage by becoming more agile

Interested in releasing your cash?

Get in touch today to find out about the rates available for year-end transactions.