Econocom is launching its new website

Puteaux, 14 September 2021, Econocom, Europe's leading Digital General Contractor, is launching its new website today. Reflecting its positioning, its values and its entrepreneurial DNA, the website offers a simplified and optimised navigation for a better user experience.

Particular attention has been paid to enable everyone to understand and (re)discover the One Digital Company, through its 360° expertise - supported by its three complementary digital lines, Equipment, Services and Financing - its employees and its CSR commitments as a responsible digital entrepreneur.

This new website is based on a completely redesigned architecture and 3 keywords:

- simpler: smoother and more pleasant navigation for Internet users;
- more direct: revised ergonomics for faster and easier access to information;
- closer to users: an improved customer experience.

The website is aimed at companies wishing to benefit from Econocom's expertise to simplify and accelerate their digital transformation, as well as at talents wishing to join the One Digital Company.
